Jesus - More Than a Miracle Worker!

We live in a fast moving age, an age of junk food and fast food and microwaves that promise meals in minutes. Our cell phones and computers make it possible for us to live life and conduct business at the speed of light. We need and want what we need and want right now, not tomorrow or the next day or next week. We want instant success and instant solutions to problems. And that attitude is often transferred to religion. Many fast-growing churches offer that sort of approach to faith: simple, unambiguous answers, healing on the spot. God becomes the Superman who saves us by instantly solving our problems and erasing our sorrows.

The people of Jesus' day were not very different. They were also impressed by miracle workers offering instant cures. They looked for a hero to save them. In fact, they had been waiting for a Messiah for several thousand years. It's no surprise that they were drawn to Jesus. He was the one who could say the word and make it all better as he does for Peter's mother-in-law in today's Gospel and all of the other sick who were brought to him later on.

The Gospel writer, Mark, knew Jesus was more than that. Remember that in the beginning of his public ministry, Jesus was very much the miracle worker, the healer, almost a magician and he attracted a lot of attention to himself. However, the Lord knew that those who saw him only as another wonder worker would miss the real meaning of his life. Jesus wanted people to understand who he really was and is. That would happen only after his death and resurrection when people would finally begin to realize that he was much more than a miracle worker.

In other words, to understand who Jesus is, we have to read the entire Gospel, all of the chapters, not just the ones about the miracles. To a world which wants a Superman, Jesus Christ comes not with a cape but with a cross. He is more than a hero or a magician – he is our Savior who promises eternal life to all believers. He does not offer fast food, but real food and real drink, his Body and Blood.

Yes, Jesus is healer and wonder worker – but only because he is the Son of God who died on the cross and rose to life again. There is more to faith than miracles. Our road to salvation is the way of Christ, and it's not a road of easy answers or instant solutions. It's the road mapped out in all of the chapters of the Gospel, the Gospel that follows the way of the Lord, the way that leads us through the cross to the resurrection.

Father Daughter Dance

Girls in Preschool 4's through Eighth Grade and their fathers or special guests enjoyed themselves at the annual Saint Mary School Father Daughter Dance! This beloved event is greatly anticipated. Each year, SMS Alumni return to help with this magical evening. The girls and their guests danced the night away in the hall which was transformed to match the theme of the night, "Be-you-tiful". FAITH FORMATION CORNER

Truly Present in the Holy Eucharist

We believe that Jesus Christ is really present in the Holy Eucharist—body, blood, soul and divinity. Jesus tells us "I am the bread of life. Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that a man may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven; if any one eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread which I shall give for the life of the world is my flesh." The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you; he who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him" (John 6:48-56).

The miracle of God's real presence under the appearance of bread and wine at every Mass is another confirmation of Christ's love for us and His desire for each of us to have a personal relationship with Him.
