DANBURY CELEBRITY BREAKFAST

On September 4, Pope Francis celebrated the Canonization Mass of Saint Teresa of Calcutta. In November, one of her special followers is coming to Danbury.

Susan Conroy made her first trip to Calcutta to work with Mother Teresa and the Missionaries of Charity in 1986. In 1987, at the request of Mother Teresa, Susan stayed in the Order's convent in the South Bronx in contemplation of the religious life.

Susan did not enter the Order, but in 1991, she returned to Calcutta during Lent to work with the Sisters among the dying destitute. She and Mother Teresa kept in touch until Mother's death in 1997. With Mother Teresa's permission, Susan wrote about her experiences, publishing Mother Teresa's Lessons of Love and Secrets of Sanctity and Praying In The Presence Of Our Lord With Mother Teresa.

Today, Susan travels around the country giving presentations on her experiences with Blessed Teresa of Calcutta. She also makes numerous personal and television appearances for local and worldwide audiences. On EWTN Global Catholic Network, Susan hosted the mini-series Speaking of Saints and Coming to Christ. In 2014, she published her ninth book, which contains personal reflections about her own beloved mother.
