CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES

Today's second Collection supports the work of Catholic Relief Services -- and its support of refugees in the Middle East. In addition to CRS, the collection supports a few other ministries of the Church including the Holy Father's Relief Fund, which helps to address other pressing needs around the world.

Today throughout the Middle East, millions of people have been forced from their homes by violence. Four million Syrians have fled that country. CRS is there as the heart and hand of the Church in the United States, to give the help that the Gospel asks of us for those in need. The conflict in Syria and throughout the Middle East, which has affected an area sacred to so many faiths including our own, has resulted in the persecution of Christians and other ethnic and religious minorities, including Yazidis, Turkmen, Muslims (Sunni and Shia). Good people of all faiths are involved in the humanitarian response.

From its beginning in 1943 helping refugees during World War II, CRS was directed by the American bishops to deliver aid to those in need, no matter their religion, their nationality, their race, their beliefs. As we like to say, "We do this not because they are Catholics, but because we are Catholics." That is what CRS is doing in this crisis, working with local partners, most of them Catholic, with a special focus on children, trying to counsel them as victims of horrific violence, and educate them so that Syria does not have a "lost generation" of children deprived of the education and skills needed to one day re-build their country when peace returns.

You have probably read about and seen TV coverage of the refugees reaching Europe, and the many who die trying. But this is only a fraction of the total who have left Syria. The vast majority of Syrian refugees are in neighboring countries - Jordan, Lebanon, Turkey and even Egypt. CRS has helped many refugees in transit in Europe, but the bulk of its aid has been in those neighboring countries where, working through Church structures, CRS has reached over 900,000 people. Today we ask that through your generosity, your compassion, and your commitment to the Gospel, to help them reach even more.

Msgr. Larry Bronkiewicz
Pastor

SAINT MARY
RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Your children's confessions will be heard during class time throughout Lent. It would be helpful for you to review the Act of Contrition at home with your child.

Our Grade 6 Seder will be held on Wednesday, March 16, at 6:00pm in our Parish Hall.

Our First Penance Ceremonies are scheduled for Monday, March 7, Wednesday, March 9, and Monday, March 14, at 6:30pm in our Church. A reception will follow in the Barn; we are asking all families to drop off a dessert/beverage to our Religious Ed Office the day before, or the day of your child's scheduled ceremony.

DEFENDING OUR RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

We are called to advocate for the most fundamental of human goods and rights, in particular, the right to life and the right not only to profess our faith, but to live it out. We are advocating for the freedom to "be Catholic," to go about our lives serving the needs of our brothers and sisters, regardless of their race, creed, or religion, not because they are Catholic but because we are Catholic. If you haven't done so already, please voice your opposition to the federal health care mandate by calling U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services Sylvia Mathews Burwell at 202-205-5445, and your elected representatives. Let them know that the mandate is in violation of our First Amendment right to religious freedom.
