

Sacred Heart University's Department of Catholic Studies, Office of Mission and Catholic Identity and the Diocese of Bridgeport present

THE JORGE BERGOGLIO LECTURE SERIES

INAUGURAL SPEAKER

the Most Reverend Frank J. Caggiano, bishop of the Diocese of Bridgeport, will present his talk, "Pope Francis and the Social Gospel: Where Do We Go from Here?"

Tuesday, March 28, at 7 p.m.
Schine Auditorium

Hosted by Father Anthony Ciorra, interim vice president for Mission and Catholic Identity

Caggiano was installed as Fifth Bishop of Bridgeport in 2013. A Brooklyn native, he was appointed auxiliary bishop of Brooklyn and titular bishop of Iris Cathaig in 2006.

This new lecture series honors the spirit and vision of Pope Francis.
