American Heritage Girls – AHG

We have a wonderful opportunity for young girls at our Parish, our Catholic American Heritage Girls Troop. I thought you would appreciate an update. – Msgr. Bronkiewicz

On Saturday morning on September 16, 2017, American Heritage Girls Troop CT6877 from our St. Mary Parish and School celebrated the AHG National Day of Service by serving the needy clients at the St. Thomas Merton Center Soup Kitchen in Bridgeport, CT.

Our hard-working young ladies arrived in Bridgeport ready to work at 7:30 am. They prepared center pieces, set tables, unstacked the chairs, made and distributed 140 goodie bags, led and sang grace, helped to serve condiments and socialized and played games with the clients as you can see below.

"My favorite part was watching the people smile when we gave them the goodie bags" said Lyla Wolf, 7-year-old and 2nd year Tenderheart from St. Mary School. Riley Mitchell, 3rd year Tenderheart shared "My favorite part was playing games with them."

American Heritage Girls Troop CT6877, chartered by St. Mary Parish in Ridgefield, is a Catholic Troop that provides a faith-based alternative to traditional girl scouting programs. Troop Coordinator, Jennifer Mitchell, who prepared this update, shared that "Although we are a Catholic troop, you do not have to be Catholic to be a part of our troop; we welcome all girls interested in sharing our mission to build women of integrity through service to God, family, community and country. In an increasingly secular world, American Heritage Girls provides girls with an opportunity to develop faith-friendships, service opportunities and to come to see the beauty of the world in a Christ-centered environment. "

While it is just September, SMS 7th and 8th grade students have begun the process of evaluating their options for High School. Representatives from Catholic High Schools have hosted information sessions for our 7th and 8th grade students and their families. Our Assistant Principal, Mrs. Liz Manno, helps guide our families through the process.

Success is best measured by results, and students who have graduated from SMS have made very successful transitions into high school. SMS alumni are enrolled in both public and private high schools including:

- Academy of Our Lady of Mercy - Lauralton Hall
- Brunswick School
- Convent of the Sacred Heart
- Fairfield College Preparatory School
- The Hopkins School
- Immaculate High School
- Iona Preparatory School
- Kennedy Catholic High School
- North Salem High School
- Joel Barlow (Redding) High School
- Ridgefield High School

DEFENDING OUR RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

"In a diverse society like ours, people will disagree on moral issues. A majority should not be able to impose its way of life on others by using the government to coerce people into violating their consciences. The Catholic Church teaches that religious freedom has to do with immunity from coercion. Immunity from government coercion is a right that all citizens in this country should enjoy. So in asking for an exemption to the HHS mandate to fully accommodate deeply held moral and religious beliefs, we are simply asking that the government give us the space to fully participate in American life." -- Cardinal Daniel N. DiNardo, archbishop of Galveston-Houston & president of the USCCB.

VIRTUS® VIRTUS TRAINING will be offered at St. Excellence Mary Parish on September 28th from 7 - 9pm in the Day Chapel. Please register at VIRTUSonline.org.

FAITH FORMATION CORNER

Faith, Hope & Love!

So faith, hope, love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love. 1 Corinthians 13:13

Faith, hope, and love are known in Catholic tradition as the "theological virtues." They are virtues which are revealed, supernatural, and, strictly speaking, impossible for us to develop on our own. There are other virtues in the Catholic tradition (prudence, temperance, justice, and fortitude) known as "cardinal virtues." Cardinal virtues are natural virtues. They are the sorts of virtues we can arrive at and even practice using common sense, wisdom, and a little moxie. But the theological virtues are supernatural gifts. God gives them to us or we do not possess them at all. And he gives them to us so we can give them back to him. He gives us the grace to believe and so we exercise faith in him. He gives us "a future and hope" (Jeremiah 29:11) and so we hope in him. He gives us love and so we have love for him that overflows in love of our neighbor. Despite the opinions of some Christians, Paul was careful to note that the greatest of these virtues is not faith, but love. But love without faith is impossible, for faith roots us in God. Ask God for the power to exercise faith, have hope, and show love today. Catholicexchange.com
