Refugee Family Update

I'd like to share with you the latest update (below) from our Ridgefield Refugee Resettlement Committee, on our refugee family who have been with us since December 2016.

A major focus for the Suleman family in the coming months will be to find a new place to live. With the wonderful continued support of our Parish, they have enjoyed the benefit of a stable housing situation for well over a year. However, due to plans for updating our Church they will need to find new housing sometime this summer. The Sulemans would love to remain in Ridgefield and are on the waiting list for the Town's housing program, although they are not high on the list.

You can help! If you become aware of any two bedroom rental housing opportunities falling into a cost range of $1750-$2000 per month (including most/all utilities), please let us know so we can pass the lead along to the family and the housing team. Opportunities in the general vicinity (for example, Danbury or Bethel) will also be considered.

Mr. Suleman will soon complete his classroom work and training and be ready to work as a licensed phlebotomist in both CT and NY, returning to work in the medical field as he has wanted to do since coming to the US.

Mrs. Suleman, is working at a local sandwich shop, and the driving team continues to offer her on-the-road driver training with a goal to schedule a road test in late May. The boys, seven-year-old Taem and five-year-old Qaes, are doing well in school and looking forward to a change of pace with summer camps.

The Sulemans applied for their Green Cards in February. They now await the several next steps as they navigate through that application process which will take at least another 6-9 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Suleman have been invited to participate on a panel about Syria and the Syrian culture in New Haven, following a related performance by Yale Repertoire on May 19th. Along with several couples from other parts of Syria, they will be discussing the customs and culture of their native country.

Thanks to everyone once again for your continued interest, your support for this effort, and your continued warm embrace of and friendship to the Suleman family.

I'm sure I speak for many of our Parishioners when I say it has been an honor sharing Christ's love with this family. They have worked hard, shown appreciation and grace, as well as enriched our Community in many ways. May God's goodness continue to follow them as they move forward on their journey.

FLU SEASON IS LASTING LONGER THAN EXPECTED. As a result, we're extending the suspension of Communion from the Cup and on the tongue through May.

Our Connecticut Dept. of Public Health reports that flu activity will continue into May. They also encourage anyone who has not yet received the flu vaccine to do so. In addition, we are advised to "take other important steps to prevent influenza-related illness and hospitalization." So please take advantage of our sanitation dispensers at the entrances of the Church and Parish Hall and avoid physical contact at the sign of peace. Finally, please remain at home if you are not feeling well. Thank you for your understanding.

FAITH FORMATION CORNER

Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary

1. True devotion to the Blessed Virgin is interior – that is, it comes from the mind and from the heart. Its source in us is the esteem in which we hold the Blessed Virgin and our love for God's Mother.
2. True devotion is tender - full of trust in the Blessed Virgin, like the confidence a child has in its mother. It leads us to pray through her intercession for our needs of body & soul and to do so with great simplicity, confidence and tenderness.
3. True devotion to the Blessed Virgin is holy – that is, it leads us to avoid sin and to imitate her, especially her principal virtues of humility; lively faith; obedience; unceasing prayerfulness, purity; ardent charity; heroic patience; and divine wisdom.
4. True devotion to the Blessed Virgin is constant. It strengthens us in doing good, and it prevents us from frivolously abandoning our devotional practices; it gives us courage to stand up to the world and to reject the ways and the wisdom of this world.
5. True devotion to the Blessed Virgin inspires the soul to seek, not itself, but God alone. A true son of Mary with a desire to obtaining temporal, physical or even spiritual benefits but venerates her because she deserves to be honored and God alone to be served in our honoring her... legionofmary.ie
